This Company negotiates five year 7 per cent Loans on Improved Farm Property, or 6 per cent loans on Improved City Real Estate, and guarantees the prompt payment thereof. It has advantages for placing loans not possessed by an individual agency, and offers great inducements to capitalists, by guaranteeing the loans it makes. The company undertakes in every instance to cash any loans made by it, on sixty days' notice of default in payment of either principal or any interest coupon, and thus does away with even the possibility of a delay in collecting. Parties wishing a safe and profitable investment, with prompt returns, will consult their interest by addressing Finance and Commerce.

Bonds, Stocks and Money.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE.

ATLANTA, April 28, 1888.

The policy of the treasury department on the bond purchase question being defined, there has been more activity in speculation with up to prices for all the favored bonds. The amount of bonds purchased this week is not large, in fact, is only about equal to the daily absorption of funds paid on account of taxes and duties, but the moral effect has been to show that the treasury is not in a difficult position in obtaining all the money it needs. Locally, there is plenty of money for the time being, though bankers are keeping their means in hand, in anticipation of increased demand as the summer comes on. The trade in securities is light, but prices are well held. Offerings are small, but ample to meet the demand. Central Railroad stock is a little firmer this week, and it is thought that an advance to 120 will be seen before the dividend day. Georgia stock, as well as Atlanta and West Point Railroad, was quiet. There was quite a deal of activity in the market for the week, but the market was not very active. The market was

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 28.—[Special.]—There was promise of higher prices and active markets during the opening hours of the market before the noon caused dullness. There was little news, except old news in wheat regarding damaged crops. There was no buying for export, and the bears still reflected that a fall in wheat prices was not probable. Nevertheless wheat prices had an upward tendency. There was no large trading, but a great deal of exchanging and scalping, which made a fairly active session in the wheat pit. Large receipts for the northwest and light clearance warrent the belief that there will be little if any decrease in the visible supply for weeks. May opened at 80 1/2, sold at 80 1/2, and closed at 80 1/2. June opened at 80 1/2, sold at 80 1/2, and closed at 80 1/2. The lowest prices of the week were caused by the very light estimate of 385 cars for May.

Oats were quiet today. There was an early advance in sympathy with wheat and corn, but after changing over a small range, the market closed at slight advance. May closed at 32 1/2 and June at 32 1/2.

In provisions, there was no unusual change. Cash property met with a comparatively fair demand, but the speculation indulged in was limited and featureless; still the market held steady at a late depression based on last night's final prices. The closing showed a slight advance in most of the commodities. The following are the closing prices:

THE COMING KIRMESS.

The Beautiful Entertainment Begins
On Thursday.

SKETCHES OF LEADING FEATURES.

The Dances of all Nations and Who Will Take Part in Them.

The Kirmess will be the most beautiful entertainment ever given in Atlanta. It is the absorbing topic of the day. Everybody is discussing it and when the curtain at DeGives rises next Thursday evening it will doubtless rise upon one of the largest audiences ever gathered together in Atlanta.

The Kirmess as produced in Atlanta is the representative of the dances of all nations.

The Kirmess and its origin are thus described by Dr. Schumann: "The Kirmess, or Kirchweih, is originally a church festival, the church mass anniversary of the dedication of the church of the village to service, and is celebrated annually in every church and every town and village.

In the morning sermon, for it is always celebrated on Sunday, the preacher alludes to the blessing brought to the German people by the church and by the conversion of their forefathers from paganism. Parades are not as plentiful in Germany, and the whole nation, high and low, believe in decent enjoyment, therefore, this day is after the afternoon's service, celebrated in the tavern or under the village lindtree with dancing, which may last till after midnight."

The Kirmess is under the direction of Professor Agostini.

The admission will be popular prices. For Thursday and Friday night tickets to the orchestra and dress circle are placed at one dollar, reserved without extra charge. To the family circle, general admission is fifty cents, reserved seats seventy-five cents.

For the Saturday matinee the general admission is fifty cents, reserved seats seventy-five cents.

The Kirmess will open on Thursday night of this week with an English Garden Party. During the scene there will be a May pole dance, participated in by eight boys and girls in Kate Greenway costumes. Then the Highland Fling will be rendered by a Scotch lass and laddie; the Sailor's Hornpipe will be danced by two sailors and a little society lady will give a staccato dance in costume.

Mrs. Joe Thompson has charge of this feature. In the Garden Party there will be Mrs. Howell Jackson, Mrs. Henry Peoples, Mrs. Martin Armstrong, Miss Marilla L. Bacon, Miss Miriam Armstrong, Major Fitts, Captain Harry Jackson, Mr. L. L. McCleskey, Mr. Parsons and Mr. Sam Hall.

The May Pole dancers are: Miss Katie Cox, Miss Gusie Talcott, Miss Myrtle Everett, Miss Betty Byington, Master Harry Lewis, Master Harry Wrenn, Master John Rains, Master John Watkins.

The Highland Fling will be danced by Miss Katie Cox and Master Stafford Nash.

The Sailor's Hornpipe, by Master Walter Nash. The staccato dance will be Miss Janette Bain.

THE INDIAN DANCE. This will be followed by the wild Indians, who whoop out from the forest, on the war path, led by Mr. Himey, formerly of Washington, D. C., but now a rising young lawyer of Atlanta.

The dance of dusky maidens and braves with their fantastic costumes, hideous war paint and brandishing tomahawks is realistic. This dance is more popular than any other. Mr. Blaney, who leads the dance, led the Indian dance at a Kirmess in Washington, and his experience there has been very valuable to him and to the Kirmess.

Mrs. Charles Handy is the lady manager in charge of the Indian dance, in which the participants are: Misses Alline Bestick, Melba, Jean, Mollie, Bodette, Foster, Saunders, Mamie Cushman, John, Emma, Fred, Stevens, Williams, Wakefield, and Messrs. Birney, Corbett, McLenon, Moore, Vaughn, Davis, Dennis, Noble, McKay, Gay, Redding, Vaughn.

FROM BUNNY HAVEN. The Indians in their dreamy Napolitan dance away and lounge to soft music. Their brilliant tunics, enhanced by scarlet fish nets and silver fish, make the scene one of wonderful brilliancy. The costumes are beautiful and among the dancers are the most beautiful of the prettiest, this will be an especially attractive feature. The Kirmess Italians are Misses Irene Loryn, Annie Woolley, May Lloyd, Harris Froude, Ida Ryan, Bertie Woolford, Nora Ernest and Messrs. Peter Grant, Gus Ryan, Ely Hulse, Norwood Robson, Ganby, Stockell, Al Robinson.

A SWEDISH HARVEST. From the sunny skies of Italy we are, in a moment transported to a Swedish harvest scene—where with sickles and rakes the peasants merrily work in the fields until evening. Then they cease their toils, and celebrate the wedding of two of their number. The bride and groom are two well-known society people.

This feature is in charge of Mrs. E. Mims and Mrs. General Lewis. Miss Maud Kirk will act as the bride and Mr. Dan Ginn as the groom in this ceremony. The other participants are Mrs. Alice White, Mrs. Conney and Misses Simpson, Merrill, Glover, Scott, Roberts, Messrs. Sims, Baines, Pattie, Hunsicker, Melone, Holland, Hopkins.

THE SPANISH MADRONS. The real wedding bells have scarcely died away when Spanish maidens, with fans and guitars, appear and make music for an enchanting little creature, whose grace in the "Cachucha" is marvelous. These maidens wear bright-colored lace mantillas and brilliant flowers, a costume which is both beautiful and becoming to the lovely participants.

Mrs. Robert Barrett has charge of the Spanish dancers, who are Misses Helen Prescott, Gusie Strong, Estoria Stevens, Annie Stevens, Irene Farrar, Laura Boykin, Pet Nibet, Netta Stovall, Josephine Baum, Pet Straughn.

A BOQUET OF LIVING FLOWERS. This is a perfect dream of beauty—beautiful women and beautiful flowers. Four kinds of flowers, roses, poppies, daisies, and blue bells, and blossoms, opening their lovely petals, and giving out their fragrance and perfume, as eight little bees buzz and fly in and out among them, finishing their honey gathering, by dancing the minut lancers. This is so enchanting, that one poor little bee falls asleep upon a rose, and is drawn from the flower in a cluster by the other bees.

This is simply exquisite. Mrs. Harry Jackson and Mrs. Simpson have charge of the flowers, and beautiful flowers they are. The roses will be: Misses May Belle Meador, Ernie Richmond, Maud Rock, Louise Pittman, Mary Pattilo, Lizzie Johnson, Abbie Harwood, Mary Child.

Daisies—Misses Jella Collier, Carrie Johnson, Callie Jackson, Jella Kingsberry, Lulu Kingsberry, Annie Howard.

Poppies—Carrie Belle Venable, Isabel Brock, Brent Whitesides, Estelle Garrett, Jeannie Boykin, Mary Boykin.

Blue Bells—Gusie Adair, Florence Jackson, Lillie Brockett, Eva Parsons, Gusie Garrett, Alonida White, Mary Kingsberry, Carrie Haygood, Gusie Wylie.

Those taking part in the minut lancers are: Mary Lou Jackson and Johnnie Talley, Daisy Holaday and Clarence Triple, Jeannette Bain and Sanders Gattis, Bessie McMillan and Harry Holaday.

LOUIS FIFTEENTH. After the intermission, the courtship on a dancing platform of scenery in the time of Louis XV., and eight of the guests dance the "Stacy minuet," after which, Mrs. Nott of New Orleans, in New Orleans, will sing a French song, accompanied by Professor Sternberg. Mrs. Nott's drawing room concert in New Orleans is a social event, and no one should lose this opportunity of hearing her charming voice.

Mrs. Olla Fuller is in charge of the French minuet. Those taking part in it are: Miss Carrie Crane, Miss Brock, of Richmond; Miss Harwood, of Macon; Mr. Harvey Johnson, Mr. Morris Brandon, Mr. Joe Fiddaman, Mr. Sam Hall, Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. M. M. Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Olla Fuller, Mrs. Nott, and Misses Mary Lou Jackson and Johnnie Talley.

THE TROUBLE. The last strains of her lovely melody have hardly died away, when, springing from rock to rock, a Scotchman, appearing, wearing the kilt, and followed by two Swiss peasants, who, with their horns, call their companions from above, and then listen for the echo. The Trovatore waltz is certainly the "poetry of motion," and the Swiss maidens, with their waltzing and intricate marching, have achieved perfection.

Mrs. H. W. Grady is in charge of the Swiss. Those taking part in this delightful feature are: Misses Lillie Orme, Bertie Coleman, Annie Reine, Mollie Courtney, Bertie Redding, Lizzie Jones, Hedding, Lida Redding, Kitty Smith, Maud Stokes, Myrtle Edging, Mamie Jackson, Gaston, Mrs. Wilcox and Mr. Fattie.

J. M. HIGH'S, THE REGULATOR AND CONTROLLER OF LOW PRICES.

NO LET UP TO THE BARGAINS.

A Big Drop in the Prices of Dress Goods this Week!

ON MONDAY MORNING

I will offer 90 pieces 36 inch Drap De Almas, summer weights. They are all wool filling and Lisle Thread Warp, in the following shades: Electric, Mahogany, Serpentine, Goblins, Tobacco, and Blumh. Goods actually worth 60c yard in any retail store in America. For Monday only, to avoid speculation, not more than two Dress Patterns will be sold to any one, at 15c yard.

Positively the last lot of those all wool Nuns' Vellings at 15c yard.

200 pieces double width Cashmeres, all the new shades, at 10c yard.

20 pieces all wool English Beliges and Serges, reduced from 50c to 37c yard.

At 25c yard, Loffer about one hundred and twenty pieces of summer weights Serges and very fine Imperial Henrietta Cloths; goods selling all over Atlanta at 50c yard.

The largest line and choicest shades of Wyring's Celebrated Silk finished Henrietta Cloths, thirty-nine colorings to select from. They are 38 inches wide, and cannot be matched in the southern states, at 58c yard.

375 Combination Dress Patterns at $2.75, $3.25, $3.75, $4.00, $5.00, $7.50 and $8. Just about one-half the regular prices.

Silks! Silks! Silks!

The New York Dry Goods Syndicate were heavy buyers at the trade auction sales last week. They sent me too many to make any money on. I am going to walk Atlanta up on the silk question.

TOMORROW

42 pieces treble Warp Phoenix Surahs, in all colors. Goods made to retail at $1.25 yard. Fine width, at 75c yard.

39 pieces fine Duchesse Rhadames, new shades, advertised by other Atlanta houses as a great specialty at $1.25; High's price 95c.

One lot all silk Surahs, a few shades only, at 57c.

I still have a few pieces of figured all silk Surahs. I am going to close them out on Monday at 25c yard.

Evening Costumes and Bridal Trousseau a great specialty.

The largest line of Colored French Failles, all shades. No failure to please.

BLACK SILKS!

BLACK SILKS!

In this department I handle only the best and most reliable brands—goods that I warrant to give entire satisfaction.

I have never before offered Black Silks at as low prices as I will during this week.

15 pieces fine double warp black all-silk Rhadames. Cannot be had elsewhere under $1.00; High's price 75c.

8 pieces treble warp all-silk black Rhadames worth $1.25, at 85c.

Other people may claim in their advertisements to match the celebrated Favorite Black Silk, but they haven't a yard. A special bargain at 75c.

In fine Black Silks I have all desirable makes. Be sure and look at them before you buy. Special values at $1.10, $1.19, $1.25, $1.35, $1.45, $1.55, $1.75, $1.95 and $2.25. An inspection will convince all judges of this class of goods.

HIGH'S BLACK DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

20 pieces all wool French De Albetros, worth 60c yard, going to be sold at 35c yard.

45 pieces 42-inch all wool Black Henriettas, lovely quality, at 48c.

Tanise, Melrose, Batiste Summer Cashmeres, Light Henriettas in all grades just opened.

HIGH'S WASH DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

Complete in Every Detail!
No End to the Assortment!

Satines, Zephyrs, Lawns, Organdies, Ginghams and Crinkles. Ten thousand styles greet the eye here.

On Bargain Counter Monday, between 8 and 11 o'clock only, another lot of those Scotch Glengarn Remnants worth 15c yard, not over 20 yards to any one at 5c yard.

ON MONDAY

I will sell 1 box only of China Canton Crepes, in figures and stripes. They drap almost as richly as the China Silks; nothing better for summer dresses. A grand bargain at 10c yd.

200 pieces genuine Scotch Ginghams, at 10c yd.

Celebrated Clarendon Lawns worth 8c, at 5c yd.

1 lot fine Plaid Dress Ginghams, at 6 1/2c yd.

1000 pieces new style Dress Ginghams, all grades.

32 piece Manchester Chambrays, solid mixtures, only worth 12c, at 6 1/2c yd.

Satines, Satines! New Styles Coming in Every Day.

I lot genuine French Satteens, others ask 25 and 30c; High's price 15c yard.

220 pieces new French Designs in Satteens, lovely quality, at 12c yd.

The richest Patterns and the largest variety of fine French Satteens in Atlanta, at rock bottom prices.

Lawn Tennis Flannels in new striped Patterns, at 20 and 25c yard.

Large line of Figured and Striped Batiste. New Percalines, New Percalines.

HIGH'S White Goods Department

Keeps busy every day. It is impossible to obtain the following Bargains elsewhere:

120 pieces Spring Tide White Plaid Lawns, sheer and extra quality, worth 18c; at 10c yd.

Checked Nainsooks, 4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 8c, 10c to 35c yard.

1 lot Short End Malacca Plaid Lawns, worth 18c; at 8c yd.

White Victoria Lawn at 25c yard; worth 45c.

White India Linens, book fold, all grades, best values, at 5, 6, 8, 10 to 25c yard.

Lovely White Batiste Clair, at 15, 18, 20 to 45c yard.

The greatest assortment of fine Novelties in White Goods, to be found in the southern states. They are correct styles and lower priced than you can get elsewhere.

A CAR LOAD OF CORSETS

—FROM THE—

Big Fire Auction Sales IN NEW YORK.

We have been selling from 200 to 450 pairs of them for a week past. They will all be closed out this week.

See the Corsets at 25c that are worth 75c.

See the Corsets at 50c, worth $1.25.

See the celebrated French H. & S. Corsets at 75c, worth $2.25.

PARASOLS! PARASOLS!

5,000 Parasols, now in store. All styles, all qualities, from the lowest priced to the highest novelty. Notice the following lots of Parasols in the Parcel section:

Lot No. 1—250 Ladies' Coaching Parasols, illuminated checked effect, opened last Friday. Goods made to sell at $2.50 each. I took them all and offer them at the ridiculous low price of $1 each.

Lot No. 2—800 of the celebrated Beaconsfield Silk Parasols, paragon frames, genuine gold and silver lacings, a great bargain at $1.50c.

Laces and Embroideries.

I have entirely demoralized the dry goods trade of Atlanta in these goods. I don't claim there is much money in it for me, but there may be some glory. I positively know there is a great benefit to those who take advantage of this sale. No old stock, all new. This season's goods will be sacrificed.

1,500 yards hand made Torchon Laces, two big job lots, at 5 and 10c yard.

Fine Medici and Smyrna Laces at half price.

1 lot fine Mull Flouncings will be closed out at 25c yard.

40 pieces fine Skirting Mull Embroidery at 25c, worth $1.85.

Mull Skirting Embroideries, all grades from 45c to 87c yard. All new designs.

1 lot 35 pieces fine Ecru Mull Embroidery, worth at least $1.75 from auction, at 75c yard.

200 pieces 22 inch Swiss and Mull Embroideries, would be cheap at $1.25, just as a bargain at 75c yard.

Extraordinary Bargains

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS FOR MONDAY

—AT—

THE BEE HIVE.

We must move at once our great surplus stock in every department, that we may have room for new goods that will soon be opened. Purchased by Mr. A. F. Engleston, who is now in the Boston and New York markets. Our third trip this season. Want better evidence of a fast growing business. Today the money, but come direct to the Bee Hive. It is the place for all to trade at. Don't waste time or lose the great and popular trading resort of the people.

There are many people who have perhaps not yet bought their new Spring Dress. If so, let us say right here that the opportunity now presented will be one of great interest to all. We have the goods. We have all the desirable shades, and whatever you may desire in trimmings to match will be found here, all at cut prices.

DRESS GOODS, DRESS GOODS, FOR TOMORROW.

20 pieces finest quality English Serges, 32 inches wide, the most desirable goods of the season. We shall offer them in all the new and beautiful shades, and our price will be 50c yard. Think of the width and quality and price. Regular price of these goods is $1.

20 pieces of Dress Goods taken from stock to be sold at a great sacrifice. To make this sale still more attractive, we shall offer 50 pieces all new desirable shades, fully worth from 50 to 60c yard, at the uniform price of 25c.

One entire stock of 50 inch Henrietta Cashmeres, which retail for $1.25 per yard; all reduced to 75c.

25 pieces French Faille Silks, in navy blue, sea brown, black and white, tan, cream and ecru at 37 1/2c; regular price 50c.

35 pieces colored Cashmeres, 36 inches wide, in all the new shades, at 12 1/2c yard; worth 25c.

Remember, with this sale will include our entire stock at reduced prices for this week.

SILKS! SILKS!

We now have the best reputation of giving our patrons the best Silks in Atlanta for the money. We ask no fancy prices, which fact attributes to the immense sales in this department. This week we shall offer some of the most astounding bargains of the season.

Black and colored Silks from the late great auction sales in New York.

This is your grand opportunity to purchase a silk dress at a nominal cost.

20 pieces of our very best $1 quality black grosgrain silk. For this sale the price will be 60c yard. We give a written guarantee with every dress sold as to the wear.

3 pieces of our $1.50 quality of black grosgrain silk. For this sale our price will be 87c yard. You can't touch it at $1.25.

10 pieces black Satin Rhadames, regular price $1 per yard. For this sale our price will be 60c.

Then we have opened especially for this sale 30 pieces finest quality 24-inch Satin Rhadames, in all new and desirable shades. Regular price of these goods is $1.50 yard; our price for this sale will be 90c yard.

First examine these goods.

15 pieces French Faille Silks, such as others advertise so extensively at $1 yard, our price is 65c yard. Let us assure one and all that there is no house in Atlanta that will offer such bargains in Silks as THE BEE HIVE. Come and see.

LACES! LACES! LACES!

The largest stock of Lace Flouncings in the city, and also the lowest prices for fine, reliable goods. We have received a large line of these goods the past week from our Boston agent, which we bought at a great sacrifice.

Chantilly Flouncings, 4 1/2 inches wide, at 75c yard.

Chantilly Flouncings at 57 1/2c. It has hitherto been impossible to make a Chantilly Flounce Pattern to import at these prices. These goods were made especially for a large Boston house, and we have the exclusive sale of them in this city.

Extra good values in Chantilly Flouncings, at $1, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.

New Pointe de Robine method, at $3, $3.50, $4, $4.50, $5 and $7.50 per yard. These are the finest grade Chantilly laces it is possible to make, and for beauty of design and durability of color, are always preferred by the Parisian dressmakers.

Flat Valenciennes, also called Normandy Lace Flouncing, at 75c, 85c, $1, in handsome designs.

Irish Point Laces, in white and ecru very low.

Great Bargains in Our Embroidery Department.

MILLIONS IN A HOTEL.

Visit to the Wonderful Palaces of Florida.

AND DESCRIPTION OF THEM.

Talks With the Proprietor of the Ponce de Leon and Alcazar.

Special Correspondence.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., April 22.—There were only four of us. And yet the party represented sixty million dollars, not counting more.

It was on the "Onion," Commodore Ponce de Leon's famous yacht, from the upper deck of which Thomas Bailey Aldrich vomited into the ocean, groaned with watery eyes and pendulous lip—"rejected contributions to the Atlantic." Behind us lay St. Augustine, ancient and lazy. To the front the ocean boomed, the white caps growing under a westerly wind. Over the head a flock of pigeons, reminding one of that other Venice, drifted here and there, their wings breaking against the sunshine of the upper deep, as the crisp waves broke two hundred feet below.

But who made up the party thus comfortably circumstanced?

Let the writer rest under the nom de plume which your journalist carries, as the Spanish gallant carried his cloak—to hide the rapier with which he went a hating or the lute with which he went a loving. Let Mr. E. C. Benedict, prince of good fellows, rest after his cruise through tropical seas, before he is put through his paces in print. Let Mr. H. B. Plant, tremendous developer and builder, prosecute his great work in peace for awhile. It is with the fourth member of the party that we have to do at present.

And one of the most remarkable men of this day he is.

A steadfast face—features resolute but not inert—gray eyes that gaze at you unwinking from beneath steady blue—square and resolute jaws—broad, deep forehead—a finely-shapely, well-poised head—a slow-motioned mind, conveying the suggestion of repressed energies—soft-spoken and deliberate of speech—laughing low, but not infrequently—alert, but with the quiet watchfulness of the waiting eagle poised in the blue—charming, in the deeper sense of strength with kindness—that is Henry M. Flagler, the most talked of man in this country for the past year—the builder of Ponce de Leon hotel.

A marvelous career has Mr. Flagler had! Briefly this. He left western New York where he was born, a poor young fellow and went into Ohio. There he formed a partnership with Mr. Rockefeller in the oil business. Through years of hard work and sacrifice he carried their business in Cleveland, until the partnership was merged into a stock company, the capital of which was $1,000,000.

Now watch the growth of this young company under the management of Messrs. Flagler & Rockefeller. In 1872 the capital stock was increased to $2,000,000—two and a half times the original. In 1873 to $3,500,000 and in 1883 to $7,000,000—seventy times the original issue. This last stock is now selling at 175, making the cash value of the original partnership $12,000,000. Of course, much of this stock has gone into other hands, but the management has practically rested, from the first, with the men who organized and built up the business. Many outside investments have been made by the company. A single investment of $12,000,000 in Michigan suggests the stupendous scope of its operations. The Standard Oil Company, for so the company is named, have uniformly found together in their investments. In the Ponce de Leon hotel Mr. Flagler is alone. "I suppose," he said, with a quaint smile, "I was the only one in the company—so I am alone in my investment here."

Now, let us see about that investment! Mr. Flagler will have spent $6,000,000 on the hotel, Alcazar and grounds when he has finished. This is stupendous, but it gives him the finest hotel in the world. General Sanford, who was minister to Belgium, and who has spent more than $1,000,000 in building the Hotel de Ville, says that there is nothing in Europe to approach it in beauty or magnificence. Mr. H. B. Plant says:

"I have studied it closely, and it is the greatest individual enterprise I have any record of. It is amazing that any man should have had the courage to spend millions so lavishly in an old and dead city."

Let us explain the investment. The "Ponce de Leon" is the hotel proper; the "Alcazar" is a separate building across the street. It was originally intended to hold the cafes, baths, bar, billiard rooms, tennis courts, etc., for the great hotel, but it has outgrown its original design. The Ponce de Leon has been open for the winter, the Alcazar is not yet finished. The Ponce de Leon cost about $2,500,000; the Alcazar will cost even more.

The Ponce de Leon has been repeatedly described. It is a hotel for the accommodation of 800 to 1,000 guests, with a court of several acres enclosed by vines having two rows of arcades, a central hall, and immense back piazzas, covered. It has immense Moorish gateways for entrances. Over $125,000 was spent in decorating the walls and ceilings of the rotunda and diningroom, and $17,000 was spent for one marble piece alone. The splendor of the hotel has been the wonder of the world for a season.

But the Alcazar will outstrip it in beauty and elegance. The Alcazar covers twenty-eight acres of ground. You approach it from broad asphalt streets. It is fronted by an open garden, through which runs walks of smooth as marble, turned at the sides with white copings. Within these copings are flower-beds of indescribable richness. In the central walks are enormous marble basins from which rise fountains with countless sprays and jets. This garden covers three or four acres, and is simply a dream of light and color. The Alcazar stands square against its further end, broken in the center by a superb arched gateway, through which you go into a second court, called "The Court of the Lions."

A more ravishing picture than this is seldom seen. The superb Alcazar rises on every side. Behind the arched way through which you entered, in front of the gorgeous diningroom and offices of the hotel, above which rise three stories of splendid architecture—closes the view. On either side this imposing pile continues, the ground floor being given up to dining salons and booths. The footways are exquisitely tiled, and the walks are of asphalt, toned into beautiful colors. Above the fronts of enormous lions, artistic and impressive, look down on the court. In the center, the asphalt is set into a running way of crystal water, thirty feet wide and a hundred feet long. From the water rise delicate fountains, under the flashing of which are masses of Zanzibar lilies, rare flowers from the Nile, and lotus plants. On every side are acres of flowers and grass, fashioned in curious beds and growing with startling luxuriance of color but blending in peaceful harmony. The dining room looking out on this court and through the broad archway into the court beyond, will seat 1,000 guests and is as handsome as the view it commands.

Beyond this stretches the Alcazar proper, and a noble pile it would be hard to find. There are lines upon lines of rooms on suite and single, finished with lavish but tasteful hands. The bar and billiard room when finished will be to blush the tawdry finery of Stokes's famous Hoffman House Place. It is estimated that $100,000 will be spent in decorating and equipping the saloon alone. In this part of the Alcazar are the offices of the hotel, fitted with a splendor to be compared only to the Ponce de Leon.

Beyond the Alcazar proper come the baths. These are simply marvellous. There are huge marble rooms for the Turkish bath, the concrete spaces in which an ordinary house might be placed, and enormous pools for the plunge. I believe the rooms and pools for the Turkish and Russian bath alone occupy more space than the Markham house entire.

But the wonder is yet to come. Back of these rooms is the sea bath. This is a stupendous cave of solid concrete, 184 feet in length, 84 feet across and from 4 to 20 feet deep. Do you get these dimensions?

The builder who built the base of Bartholdi statue declares that the ruins in Rome show no such masonry or concrete work, and that this bath stands without a precedent in sacred or profane history. Into this cavernous dome Mr. Flagler will literally let the sea. Above it rise the three stories of the Alcazar, leaving the view clear, however, to the glass roof 90 feet away, through which the tropical sun beats gently even in December. On the first floor are hundreds of drawing-rooms, just as at Cape May or Conny Island. On the floor above is a cafe, the tables so placed as to overlook the pulsing sea beneath. On the next are bachelors' quarters, fitted with the latest luxuries. Here a gentleman can leave his rooms in the morning in slippers and bathing suit—descend by elevator to the sea for a plunge or swim—can splash to music from a band suspended mid air above him—return one floor, and while he reads his morning paper eat such a breakfast of tropical seas, before he is put through his paces in print. Let Mr. H. B. Plant, tremendous developer and builder, prosecute his great work in peace for awhile. It is with the fourth member of the party that we have to do at present.

After going over this amazing building, with its tennis courts, archery, grounds, bowling alleys, etc., with Mr. Flagler and Senator Cameron, a prominent New Yorker said:

"Now add a million dollars more to this and make a Monte Carlo. You will then have such a resort as will attract visitors from every quarter of the globe the year around."

"I am too much of a Presbyterian," Mr. Flagler replied, "to establish a gambling house. Besides I have a firm belief that if you give the American people wholesome, innocent and healthful amusement they will be satisfied. I have spared nothing to do this—but nothing shall carry me further than this."

The Ponce de Leon was built in eighteen months—the Alcazar will be built in less time. To spend $25,000,000 in building, more than two and a half years is a big undertaking. All the time Mr. Flagler has asked but one question:

"Is it the best—the best that money can buy or ingenuity devise?"

That answered, he said: "Buy!" When he saw from the photographs that the photographs taken of the work every Saturday night, so that he can see precisely how it has advanced. At first excuses were sometimes forwarded with the pictures.

"I will have no excuses," he replied. "I want results. I am too old to deal with excuses," and after that no excuses were sent. He secures the best men, regardless of price. He heard of a man who made a business in Los Angeles of raising Asiatic plants. This was the man he wanted for his Zanzibar lilies and Nile plants. So he brought him over from California and installed him at the Alcazar. He paid over $100 a day for an orchestra. The Ponce de Leon, and hung a $6,000 Bridgeman on his parlor walls, though $1,000 would have bought a choice picture.

But has it paid?

Yes. Contrary to the expectation of every human being, except perhaps Mr. Flagler, it has paid. For sixty days this season people were turned away from the Ponce de Leon. Frequently one thousand people sat down to dinner, and the receipts for the sixty days were over $300,000, or $5,000 a day. The running expenses could not have been more than $2,500 a day, and it is said $2,000 would cover everything.

At the higher figure the profits for the sixty days would be $150,000, or six per cent on $2,500,000, the cost of the hotel. But for the thirty days preceding and the thirty days following this flush period there was an estimated profit of $1,000 a day—meaning that the profit of the hotel, which in this case means the rent, were not less than $300,000 for the season. With the Alcazar opened, the capacity of the enterprise will be doubled and its earning capacity more than doubled.

The rates? Five dollars a day and upward. Eight out of ten visitors pay $5 a day. The other two, taking private apartments, pay $10 a day. ## THE CATTLE RANGING

How the Cattle Growers of New Mexico Live.

ROUNDING UP AND BRANDING.

Camping on the Plains and Herding the Stock.

Special Correspondence.

STANFORD, N. M., April 21.—Life on a great cattle ranch in the far west, is a different thing from what it has usually been painted. Picturesque cowboys in red flannel shirts and silver-trimmed sombreros, wearing embroidered Mexican leggings, and wide belts bristling with revolvers and bowie knives, exist, principally, in the imaginations of the writers of dime novels or sensational stories for the metropolitan press. The cowboy is a very interesting individual when you come to know him, and it is hard to conceive of a pleasanter way to spend a week than on some of the big ranches in central New Mexico.

To the north of the town from which I write is located a large "range," owned by Kansas City and Chicago people. The nearest postoffice is Wagon Mound, distant 40 miles in a bee line. A "range" consists of several "ranches," each of which is owned by separate individuals. The "range" is controlled by the writers of dime novels or sensational stories for the metropolitan press. it be found that a mistake has been made by the branders, the calf is again captured as before, and "counterbranded." The former is placed beneath it. This is not pleasant for the calf, but it must be done, as every owner pays into the association annual dues in proportion to the number of calves he brands during the year, and not in proportion to the amount of stock he sells—in other words, he pays in proportion to his increase.

The cattle branders in all the different ranchmen constituting the range form at will together. When marketing time comes, which is usually twice or three times a year, the great excitement of a "round-up" takes place. The herders drive all the cattle on the range—from 20,000 to 30,000 head, as the case may be, to a designated spot, each herder covering a certain territory to see that
